Re: United States v. Huai Weng,

Dear Judge Torres:

I failed to submit my sentencing memorandum by January 2nd. I have been engaged in a trial this week before the Honorable Andrew L. Carter, Jr. I have no excuse for this failure. I had time to prepare the submission, since this week the trial entailed summations and deliberations. As of this writing deliberations continue. I failed to see the Court's email extending the time to submit the memorandum to January 3. I apologize for not submitting the memorandum timely and for my failure to request an extension.

I request leave to file my submission by 9:00 A.M. on Monday January 8th.

I have reached out to the government and will advise Your Honor concerning this request.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully yours,
/s/
Thomas F.X. Dunn

GRANTED.
